No. CR-15-00982-PHX-JJT
DETENTION ORDER

11 v.

12 Juan Jose Luz, Jr.,
13 Defendant.
14

15 In accordance with the Bail Reform Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f), the issue of 16 detention was addressed at a hearing on August 20, 2015. The Court was informed that 17 the defendant is subject to other custody and is not eligible for release at this time.

18 The Court finds by a preponderance of the evidence that the defendant is subject to 19 other custody and should be similarly detained in this case. If circumstances change such 20 that the defendant is no longer in custody in the other matter, the defendant shall have 21 leave to request that the matter of detention be reopened in this case.

22 IT IS ORDERED that the defendant be detained pending further proceedings. The 23 defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated 24 representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable,
25 from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The 26 defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense
27 counsel. On order of the Court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the 28 government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver the defendant to

1 the United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a Court
2 proceeding.

3 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that should a motion for review/reconsideration of 4 this detention order be filed, it is counsel's responsibility to deliver a copy of the motion
5 for review/reconsideration to Pretrial Services at least one day prior to the hearing.

6 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that if a release to a third party is to be considered, it
7 is counsel's responsibility to notify Pretrial Services sufficiently in advance of the hearing
8 to allow Pretrial Services an opportunity to interview and investigate the potential third 9 party custodian.

10 Dated this 20th day of August, 2015.
